Dec 1931 Verlinda Munro April 2021

Sister Verlinda Munro was born December 29, 1931 to her parents, Joseph and Dollie Leary in New Bern, NC., and was second of six children. She attended West Craven High School. After graduating at the age of 16, she moved to New York City with family. She had careers in business, retail showcase design, domestic engineering, and as a home health aide.

Verlinda began studying the Bible with Jehovah's Witnesses in the early 1970's. She was baptized in 1978 at the International Victory Convention at Yankee Stadium in New York City. She attended the Bergen congregation for many years and later, her final congregation was Ebbets Field in Brooklyn, New York.

Verlinda loved Jehovah and enjoyed being in the ministry. She had the privilege of helping others to learn and come to know Jehovah God. She always looked forward to the assemblies and conventions of Jehovah Witnesses. She used to say, "even though I'm tired, I feel so good". This is a reflection of her love in being with her brothers & sisters and her appreciation to worship her God Jehovah.

Verlinda had a daughter Lorraine Folk, and was later married for 12 years to Lesley Munro and had two children through this union, Vincent and Lisa Munro. Although she had only three biological children, most would refer to her affectionately as "Ma", and to her nieces and nephews as "Aunt Lint".

Verlinda is survived by her children, Lorraine Folk Jones (husband Tyrone), Vincent Leon Munro (wife Sonia), Lisa Munro-Robinson (husband John), grandchildren, Charmaine Clay, Candice Seales, Christopher Jones, Ashley Munro, Jonathan Robinson, great-grandchildren, Donte Clay, Mya Brounson, Makayla Serrano, Scarlett Jones, Rahmell Jones, Amaree Jones, brother Solomon Leary (wife Gwendolyn), sister Marjorie Newsome (husband Everett), sister-in-law Patricia Leary and a host of Cousins, Nieces, Nephews and friends.

Verlinda loved Jehovah and had a strong faith to Jehovah's promises of a new world, where death, pain and sorrow will be no more. (Revelation 21:3,4)

She was deeply loved and will be greatly missed.
